

The 5th International Workshop on the South China Sea

Written by vuquangtiap

Saturday, 09 November 2013 07:58

The Diplomacy Academy of Vietnam and the Vietnam Lawyers' Association will jointly hold an international seminar on the East Sea in Hanoi on November 11th – 12th.

The event, the fifth of its kind, will bring together more than 200 delegates, including government officials, scholars, and experts from ASEAN member countries, China, Japan, the Republic of Korea, Australia, the U.S....

Themed “The South China Sea: Cooperation for Regional Security and Development”, the seminar helps scholars exchange views and promote mutual understanding of common interest in maintaining peace, stability, security and marine safety in the East Sea.

Delegates will propose measures to strengthen security and cooperation in the region.

Click here for Workshop Booklet